TEAM MANAGEMENT

BILL FOLEY

Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Governor

Bill Foley knew that bringing an NHL franchise to Las Vegas was not going to be an easy task, but his persistence paid off on June 22, 2016. While that day will go down in history as the first day a major professional team entered the market, it would not have happened without the hard work from Foley and the people he surrounded himself with.

In the years leading up to the Board of Governor's announcement of the NHL's 31st franchise, Foley, the Vegas Golden Knights Chairman and CEO, was busy engaging the fan base and aligning himself with prominent people in the community. In early 2014, he entered an agreement with the Maloof family to pursue an NHL franchise in Las Vegas. Later that year, MGM and AEG broke ground on a new arena on Las Vegas Boulevard. At the end of 2014, the NHL granted Foley permission to gauge fan interest in Las Vegas.

On February 15, 2015, Foley and the Maloofs launched the "Vegas Wants Hockey" season ticket drive with the goal of 10,000 season tickets sold. They received more than 5,000 ticket deposits on the first day and about a month later, they reached their goal. In June, the NHL officially announced they would accept applications for expansion. Less than a month later Foley had submitted his application. He would spend the next 11 months meeting with NHL officials and governors on why Las Vegas was a good fit.

After expansion was announced, Foley went to work putting together his team. He named George McPhee the team's first General Manager on July 13, 2016 and the hockey operations staff started to take form. On October 3, 2016, Kerry Bubolz was named the team's first President and the business side of the team started to develop. Two days later on October 5, 2016, construction began on the team's practice facility in Downtown Summerlin. The official team name, the Vegas Golden Knights, was announced on November 22, 2016, in front of thousands of fans in Toshiba Plaza in front of T-Mobile Arena.

The final expansion payment was made by Foley on March 1 and the team made its first hockey transaction on March 6 by signing Reid Duke to an entry-level contract. On April 13, alongside McPhee, Foley announced Gerard Gallant as the team's first head coach.

He sat in on many meetings leading up to the Expansion Draft and on June 21, alongside McPhee, Foley announced picks at the NHL Awards Show in front of more than 10,000 fans at T-Mobile Arena.

In their inaugural season, the Golden Knights finished with a 51-24-7 overall record, won the Pacific Division and advanced to the Stanley Cup Final. Vegas became the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division.

The team became the first expansion team to start their inaugural season 3-0 and the Golden Knights continued their strong play through October, starting with an 8-1 record, despite losing multiple goaltenders to injury. From Nov. 16 – Jan. 2, Vegas had a record of 17-3-1 and moved into first place in the Pacific Division and Western Conference. That 21-game stretch saw the Golden Knights post its eighth consecutive home win and ended with an eight-game winning streak and 13-game point streak (12-0-1) – both NHL records for a team in its inaugural season.

Vegas overtook the Lightning for first place in the entire NHL on Jan. 21 and 11 days later posted their 34th victory to set the NHL record for wins by a team in its inaugural season – with 32 games remaining. Over the course of the remainder of 2017-18, the Golden Knights would continue to shatter records for a franchise in its inaugural NHL season, including longest home point streak (10-0-2 from Dec. 3 – Jan. 23), most home wins (finishing with 29), most road wins (finishing with 22) and most overall points (finishing with 109).

Foley is the founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Fidelity National Financial Corporation (NYSE: FNF), a publicly traded Fortune 500 Company. A provider of title insurance, specialty insurance and claims management services, FNF was selected in 2004 by Forbes as one of the "26 Best Managed Companies in the U.S." and has repeatedly been named to Fortune's list of America's Most Admired Companies, Forbes' list of America's Best Big Companies and selected for Barron's list of Best Companies for Investors.

After receiving his B.S. degree in engineering from the United States Military Academy at West Point, Foley served in the U.S. Air Force, where he attained the rank of captain. He received an M.B.A. degree from Seattle University and earned his J.D. degree in 1974 from the University of Washington School of Law. From 1974 to 1984, Foley practiced law in Phoenix and focused primarily on corporate and real estate law. Following his legal tenure, Foley became affiliated with FNF. Through strategic acquisitions, Foley led FNF to become one of the largest title insurance companies in the nation, as well as to diversify into information services through the 2003 acquisition of ALLTEL Information Services, now Lender Processing Services (NYSE: LPS).

Foley devotes time to many educational and community organizations. In 1997, he was chosen as Orange County, California's Business Person of the Year, honored with the Marine Corps Scholarship Foundation's Semper Fidelis award and inducted into the Florida Council of Economic Education's First Coast Business Hall of Fame in 2006.

Foley and his wife, Carol, are active philanthropists for many causes, especially those in support of children's education. Foley has served as a trustee on the boards of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and the Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens. He also serves on the board of the Folded Flag Foundation, and their mission is to provide educational scholarships and support grants to the spouses and children of the United States military and government personnel who died as a result of hostile action or in an accident related to U.S. combat operations. Foley's additional professional directorships include Winter Sports, Inc.; Ceridian Corporation; and Fidelity Newport Holdings, LLC.

In addition to his numerous professional and philanthropic commitments, Foley is an accomplished golfer, ranked in 2004 by Golf Digest as one of the top five executive golfers in the world. Foley enjoys his time as a vintner and is the founder and managing partner of Foley Family Wines, headquartered in Sonoma, Calif. Foley also formed and serves as Chairman of Glacier Restaurant Group, LLC, the largest restaurant business headquartered in Montana. He is the developer of Rock Creek Cattle Company, a 40,000-acre working Montana ranch, featuring a high-end golf community with diverse homesteads, a well-appointed lodge for recreation and dining and an exceptional golf course designed by Tom Doak.

GEORGE McPHEE

President of Hockey Operations, General Manager, Alt. Governor

On July 13, 2016, George McPhee became the first-ever President of Hockey Operations and General Manager of the Vegas Golden Knights. In his position, he oversees the team's day-to-day hockey operations including development, with an emphasis on scouting, drafting and overseeing the coaching staff. McPhee has created a team-first culture in his short time with the franchise and has hired staff around him who share that philosophy.

The team bought into the culture established by McPhee and became the first expansion team to start their inaugural season 3-0. The Golden Knights continued their strong play in October, starting with an 8-1 record, despite losing multiple goaltenders to injury.

The Vegas Golden Knights finished their unprecedented inaugural season with a 51-24-7 record (109 points) and the Pacific Division title, becoming the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division.

For his efforts, McPhee was named the General Manager of the Year during the NHL Awards show on June 20, 2018. It was his first GM Award in his second appearance as a finalist, having finished as a runner-up in 2009-10 with the Washington Capitals.

Prior to the season, McPhee was tasked with putting together a competitive team in the short-term but also building for long-term success. Contributing to both of those goals was a successful Expansion Draft, which saw him select three-time Stanley Cup champion goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury from the Pittsburgh Penguins as well as other players who will immediately compete for playing time.

The Expansion Draft was not the only place where McPhee and his staff were successful. Through the expansion process, the Golden Knights made agreements with other teams and benefited by having three first-round draft picks in the 2017 NHL Entry Draft and 13 overall picks in the draft. The team ended up making 12 selections, the most of any team in the 2017 draft.

McPhee joined the Golden Knights after most recently being named Special Advisor to New York Islanders General Manager Garth Snow in 2015.

Prior to his time with the Islanders, McPhee served as Vice President and General Manager of the Washington Capitals for 17 seasons. Under his guidance, the Capitals grew from a lottery team to a perennial contender with multiple Southeast Division championships and the team captured the Presidents' Trophy in 2009-10.

The Capitals reached the playoffs 10 times during McPhee's tenure in Washington, including six straight seasons from 2007-08 to 2012-13. Under his leadership, the team claimed seven Southeast Division titles (1999-2000, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2012-13) and he oversaw the Capitals first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1997-98, McPhee's first season with the franchise.

McPhee also saw success through the draft while with Washington as the team held 15 first-round draft picks from 2004-13, the most of any NHL team. His most notable selection was the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the league's only active three-time MVP.

Those prospects flourished under McPhee's direction as the Capitals affiliate of the American Hockey League, the Hershey Bears, were Calder Cup champions in 2006, 2009 and 2010.

Prior to his time in Washington, McPhee spent five seasons as the Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then General Manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. In his time with the Canucks, the team enjoyed four trips to the playoffs, a division championship and a trip to the 1994 Stanley Cup Final.

McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. A four-year letterwinner from 1978-82, he was the recipient of the 1982 Hobey Baker Memorial Award, given to the top player in college hockey. His other accolades included a first-team All-CCHA selection in 1982, second-team All-CCHA honors in 1979 and 1981 and his selection as the CCHA's Rookie of the Year in 1979. Earning a degree in business, he became the first player to be named to the CCHA All-Academic Team in three consecutive seasons.

Upon the completion of his college career, McPhee signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers and started his NHL career during the 1982 Stanley Cup playoffs. Following his seven seasons with the Rangers and New Jersey Devils, McPhee earned his law degree from Rutgers University in 1992.

McPhee and his wife, Leah, have two daughters, Grayson and Adelaide, and one son, Graham, who was drafted by the Edmonton Oilers in the fifth round of the 2016 NHL Entry Draft.

KERRY BUBOLZ

President, Chief Operating Officer, Alternate Governor

On October 3, 2016, Vegas Golden Knights Chairman and CEO Bill Foley announced Kerry Bubolz as the first President and Chief Operating Officer of the Golden Knights. In his role, Bubolz oversees all business aspects of the franchise.

Bubolz is entering his second season with the Golden Knights after leading the organization to a tremendously successful first campaign. The Golden Knights exceeded expectations averaging 104.4% attendance at T-Mobile Arena when combining playoffs and regular season totals. Under Bubolz's leadership the organization also achieved sponsorship revenue 20% higher than the forecasted goals for the 2017-18 season and ranked in the top tier among NHL teams in terms of per game gate revenue.

Bubolz was also instrumental in negotiating the franchise's television deal with Root Sports (now AT&T Sportsnet), broadcasting VGK games not only locally in Las Vegas but extending throughout the Western Rockies region through Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and parts of California and Arizona. The Golden Knights also captured national attention with their best-in-class game presentation putting on a show for both Golden Knights fans, and NHL fans. Bubolz's steady leadership ultimately led to the organization winning the Sports Business Journal's prestigious Sports Team of the Year Award for the 2017-2018 season, as well as the National Hockey League's "Commissioner Award for Business Excellence".

Bubolz has also instilled a commitment to community outreach and service in the franchise through the organization's various charitable initiatives. The Golden Knights Foundation serves as the primary charitable link between the team and the Las Vegas community focusing on several projects including, fighting hunger and homelessness in Las Vegas, securing the future of Las Vegas military, first responders and their families, and fostering physical, social and emotional growth of Las Vegas youth. The Golden Knights Foundation also raised more than $775,000 in 2017 for the Folded Flag Foundation and other Southern Nevada military and first responder non-profits. Bubolz's commitment to community and growing the sport of hockey in Southern Nevada is evidenced by the team's hockey development programs, including the "Golden Knights Hockey Academy" which reaches close to 80,000 children and 63 middle schools in Clark County.

Prior to joining the Golden Knights, Bubolz spent 13 years with the National Basketball Association's Cleveland Cavaliers. In 2013, he was named President of Business Operations where he oversaw ticketing and suite sales, corporate sponsorship revenue, broadcast, marketing, communications and community engagement for the franchise. In Bubolz's time with the Cavaliers, the team won the Eastern Conference Championship three times and won the NBA championship in 2016. The Cavaliers were consistently recognized by the NBA during their annual Sales & Marketing awards ceremonies as a top performing team in all key business metrics.

In addition to overseeing Cavaliers business operations, Bubolz also served as President and Alternate Governor for all franchise property teams owned by the Cavaliers Operating Company, including the Lake Erie Monsters of the American Hockey League. In 2016, the Monsters won the Calder Cup and finished third in league average attendance with 8,596 fans per-game. He was also President and Chief Operating Officer of the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League from 1994 to 2000.

The Tulsa, Oklahoma native also brings an abundance of National Hockey League experience to Las Vegas. He served as vice president of sales for the Carolina Hurricanes and the Dallas Stars prior to joining the Cavaliers.

Bubolz graduated from Oklahoma State University with a Bachelors' Degree in marketing in 1989. He and his wife, Melissa, live in Summerlin and have two daughters, Madison and Emma.

McCrimmon is the Wheat Kings All-Time winningest coach, having won over 400 games behind Brandon's bench. The Medicine Hat, Alberta native was drafted 17th overall in the 1982 NHL draft and played 18 seasons in the National Hockey League between 1982-2000. He suited up in 1,071 games for six different teams: Detroit Red Wings, Philadelphia Flyers, Hartford Whalers, Vancouver Canucks, Chicago Blackhawks and the San Jose Sharks.

Over the course of his career he compiled 759 points on 266 goals and 493 assists. GERARD GALLANT
Head Coach

Gerard Gallant was named the first head coach of the Vegas Golden Knights on April 13, 2017. During the team's inaugural season, he led the Golden Knights to the Stanley Cup Final, broke numerous expansion records during the season and was named the 2018 Jack Adams Award winner after finishing the season with a 51-24-7 record (109 points) and the Pacific Division title.

Vegas became the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division (excluding mergers and all-expansion divisions). With a fifth-place finish overall, Vegas also became the first expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish among the top-five in the league.

Under Gallant's direction, the team became the first expansion team to start a season with a 3-0-0 record after defeating the Dallas Stars and Arizona Coyotes on the road before hosting the Coyotes on October 10, 2017. The team would continue their hot trend, losing only one of its first nine games. The Golden Knights capped off its 8-1-0 start with a 7-0 victory on Nevada Day, marking its first five-game winning streak of the season – at the time matching an inaugural season record achieved by two other clubs (1926-27 Rangers and 1979-80 Oilers).

The Golden Knights had a record of 17-3-1 from Nov. 16 – Jan. 2 to move into first place in the Pacific Division and Western Conference. That 21-game stretch saw Vegas post its eighth consecutive home win and ended with an eight-game winning streak and 13-game point streak (12-0-1) – both NHL records for a team in its inaugural season.

Vegas overtook the Lightning for first place in the entire NHL on Jan. 21 and 11 days later posted their 34th victory to set the NHL record for wins by a team in its inaugural season – with 32 games remaining. Over the course of the remainder of 2017-18, the Golden Knights would continue to shatter records for a franchise in its inaugural NHL season, including longest home point streak (10-0-2 from Dec. 3 – Jan. 23), most home wins (finishing with 29), most road wins (finishing with 22) and most overall points (finishing with 109). On March 26, Vegas became the third expansion team since 1968-69 – and first to start from scratch – to clinch a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (also EDM and HFD in 1979-80). In addition to the Golden Knights, Oilers and Whalers, only four other expansion clubs from any of the four North American professional sports leagues qualified for the playoffs in their inaugural seasons.

Prior to the Golden Knights, Gallant served as head coach of the Florida Panthers for parts of three seasons (2014-16), leading the Panthers to a record of 96-65-25 and an Atlantic Division title during the 2015-16 season.

During his first season behind Florida's bench, Gallant guided the Panthers to a 38-29-15 record and 91 points, a 25-point improvement from the previous season. The Panthers were eliminated from playoff contention after the 80th game of the 2014-15 regular season.

In his second year with the team, the Panthers finished with a franchise-best 103 points and a record of 47-26-9. The team captured its second-ever division title and made their fifth appearance in the NHL playoffs and first since the 2011-12 season. For his efforts, Gallant was named a finalist for the Jack Adams Award, which is annually given to the NHL coach who has contributed the most to his team's success.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Gallant, 55, spent two seasons (2012-14) as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens, helping the team advance to the postseason each year, including the 2014 Eastern Conference Finals.

2018 PLAYOFF NOTES

GOLDEN KNIGHTS QUICK STRIKES DURING PLAYOFFS

The Golden Knights posted a tally in the opening six minutes of regulation five times during the post-season, including three in a row during the Western Conference Final against the Winnipeg Jets. The Golden Knights own a 5-0 mark in those contests. In the final game against the Jets, Alex Tuch found the back of the net in Game 5 at the 5:11 mark of the first period.

ADVANCING TO THE STANLEY CUP FINAL

Vegas is the sixth team in NHL history to reach the Final in its first playoff appearance – and the third to do so in its inaugural season. The expansion Golden Knights look to become the second team in NHL history to close their inaugural season as champions. The Toronto Arenas ended the first postseason in League history by winning the Cup on home ice and the St. Louis Blues were swept by the Canadiens in 1967-68, when an expansion team was guaranteed a spot in the championship series.

BEST POSTSEASON START IN LEAGUE HISTORY

Vegas owns an 8-2 record through its first 10 playoff games – the best record through a franchise's first 10 postseason contests in NHL history. Only two other clubs have required fewer than 14 games to record their eighth all-time playoff win: Florida needed 11 games to win each of their first two series en route to an appearance in the 1996 Stanley Cup Final and Buffalo won eight of their first 13 playoff games from 1973 to 1975.

VEGAS MAKES MORE HISTORY AFTER SECOND ROUND VICTORY OVER SAN JOSE

The Golden Knights became just the third franchise in NHL history to win multiple series in its inaugural season. The first postseason in League history saw the Toronto Arenas win the 1918 NHL Final, a two-game total-goals series, by a 10-7 margin against the Montreal Canadiens before defeating the Pacific Coast Hockey Association's Vancouver Millionaires to win the Stanley Cup. In 1968, the St. Louis Blues defeated the Philadelphia Flyers and Minnesota North Stars to emerge from the all-expansion West Division and advance to the Stanley Cup Final.

GOLDEN KNIGHTS COMPLETE NHL HISTORY WITH FIRST ROUND SWEEP

The Vegas Golden Knights became just the third team from the NHL, NBA and MLB to complete a four-game sweep to win their first-ever playoff series – and the first to do so in their inaugural season. The Pittsburgh Penguins achieved the feat in 1970 (vs. Oakland Seals), their third season in the NHL, and the MLB's Boston Braves did so in 1914 (vs. Philadelphia Athletics), their 39th season as a franchise and the 11th in which the MLB crowned a World Series champion. Only one other team has swept a best-of-seven series at any point in their first-ever postseason: the NBA's Portland Trail Blazers in 1977

(vs. Los Angeles Lakers), their seventh NBA campaign. The Golden Knights' sweep is not only the first of its kind for a professional team in its inaugural season, but also a rare feat for any club in the Stanley Cup Playoffs over the past 10 years. Only 12.5% of series have ended after four games since 2009.

FLEURY LIGHTS OUT IN SERIES-CLINCHING SITUATIONS

Marc-Andre Fleury made 31 saves for the Golden Knights in Game 5 as Vegas defeated the Winnipeg Jets 2-1 in the Western Conference Final. Against the San Jose Sharks, he made 28 saves for the Golden Knights en route to a 3-0 series-clinching win over the San Jose Sharks in the Second Round, registering his third straight shutout in a potential series-clinching game, following a 4-0 victory over the Los Angeles Kings in Round One and a 2-0 victory with the Penguins in Game 7 of the 2017 Second Round at Washington. It was also his fourth career series-clinching shutout overall, trailing only Chris Osgood (5) for the most by a goaltender in NHL history.

FLEURY FINISHES IN FINE FORM DURING STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS

Marc-Andre Fleury finished the postseason with a 13-7 record, 2.24 goals-against average and a .927 save percentage. His .927 save percentage is tied for the second best while his 13 wins and 2.24 GAA rank third best in his playoff career. He has captured 75 postseason wins, which ranks eighth all-time. He made 31 saves as the Golden Knights closed out their series with a 2-1 win over the Winnipeg Jets. Overall he has made 594 saves on 641 shots in 20 postseason games. Fleury has recorded 14 career postseason shutouts and moved into a tie for sixth place on the NHL's all-time postseason shutouts list. The Sorel, Quebec native is the first goaltender to record four shutouts in a single postseason since 2011, when Vancouver's Roberto Luongo and Boston's Tim Thomas each registered four. Fleury started the and playoffs with a five-game winning streak. It was his third win streak of at least five games within a playoff year. The others came with the Penguins en route to appearances in the Stanley Cup Final: 7-0 in 2008 and 5-0 in 2009.

MARCHESSAULT MARCHED THROUGH THE POSTSEASON

Jonathan Marchessault finished the postseason ranking second on the team in points with 21 (8G, 13A) but led the team with eight goals. His eight goals tied for sixth in the league during the playoffs. In Game 3 against the Winnipeg Jets, he became the first player in NHL history to score a goal in both the first and last minute of the same playoff game. Marchessault's first goal came 35 seconds into the contest and his second with 2.7 seconds remaining in regulation.

MARCHESSAULT, SMITH AND KARLSSON IN RARE AIR

The line of Reilly Smith (5-17—22), Jonathan Marchessault (8-13—21) and William Karlsson (7-8—15) combined for the opening goal in Game 6 against the San Jose Sharks and they finished as the top three point producers for the Vegas Golden Knights in the 2018 Stanley Cup Playoffs. The Golden Knights became the third franchise in NHL history to feature three players with at least 10 points apiece through the first 10 games of its inaugural postseason, joining the New York Islanders in 1975 (Jude Drouin, J.P. Parise, Ed Westfall) and Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in 1997 (Paul Kariya, Dmitri Mironov, Teemu Selanne).

SMITH KEEPS ON DISHING

Reilly Smith led the team with 22 points (5G, 17A) during the 2018 NHL Playoffs. His 17 assists ranked third in the league. His first period assist in Game 4 against the Winnipeg Jets set an NHL record for the most assists by a player in his team's first postseason appearance, passing Igor Larionov, who finished with 13 assists and 18 points in 1994 with San Jose.

MCNABB NETS SERIES-CLINCHER VS. FORMER CLUB

Golden Knights defenseman Brayden McNabb became just the fourth player in NHL history to score a series-clinching goal against the team he played for in the previous season. Elias notes that McNabb joined Gerry Ehman (1959 SF w/ TOR, vs. BOS), Jean-Francois Sauve (1984 CQF w/ QUE, vs. BUF) and Garry Valk (1999 CSF w/ TOR, vs. PIT).

WINNING IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

Game 2 in the First Round series between the Vegas Golden Knights and the Los Angeles Kings was decided in the second overtime session, as Vegas defeated L.A. 2-1. The Golden Knights became the third team in NHL history to win a playoff game requiring multiple overtimes in its inaugural season. Vegas joined the St. Louis Blues, who did it in Game 3 of the 1968 Quarterfinals vs. the Philadelphia Flyers and Game 7 of 1968 Semifinals vs. the Minnesota North Stars, as well as the Flyers who accomplished the feat in Game 6 of the 1968 Quarterfinals at St. Louis.

GOLDEN KNIGHTS CAPTURE PACIFIC DIVISION, FINISH FIFTH IN THE NHL

The Golden Knights earned a Y beside their name in the standings after clinching the Pacific Division with their victory over the San Jose Sharks on March 31, 2018. Vegas became the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division (excluding mergers and all-expansion divisions). The team also finished fifth in the league, becoming the first expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish among the top-five in the league.

X MARKS THE SPOT

The Vegas Golden Knights defeated the Colorado Avalanche (March 26) to become the third expansion team since 1968-69 – and first to start from scratch – to clinch a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In 1979-80, the Hartford Whalers and Edmonton Oilers each reached the postseason after joining the NHL from the World Hockey Association. Only four other expansion clubs from any of the four North American professional sports leagues qualified for the playoffs. The four other expansion clubs to reach the playoffs – all from the NBA – are the 1966-67 Chicago Bulls, 1976-77 Denver Nuggets, 1976-77 San Antonio Spurs and 2002-03 New Orleans Hornets.

STRIKING FIRST

The Vegas Golden Knights had a 34-5-2 record when scoring the first goal of the game. Their .829 win percentage when recording the opening mark ranked second in the NHL.

POWER-PLAY SUCCESS

From January 21 to the end of the regular season, the Vegas Golden Knights power-play operated at a high level. The team ranked second in the league with a power-play percentage of 28.4 and through April 7, Vegas converted 29 of 102 attempts during that time. On the season the Golden Knights finished ninth in the NHL with a 21.4 power-play percentage.

LA FLEUR FLEURIT

Despite missing 25 games due to injury earlier this season, goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury put together a stellar season. His 2.24 goals-against average and his .927 save percentage are career-bests. He finished the season tied for second in the league in goals-against average and tied for sixth in save percentage. The Sorel, Quebec native earned his 48th career shutout and is three victories shy of moving into a tie for 10th on the NHL's all-time wins.

MR. 200

Vegas Golden Knights head coach Gerard Gallant captured his 200th career victory when the team defeated the Colorado Avalanche on March 26. The Prince Edward Island native was named the first head coach in Vegas Golden Knights history on April 13, 2017 and he led the Pacific Division to victory during the 2018 All-Star Game. He was named the Jack Adams Award winner on April 25, 2018. Gallant is in his seventh season as an NHL head coach after spending parts of six seasons with Columbus (2003-07) and Florida (2014-16) and has compiled a career record of 203-164-4-38.

WILLIAM "WILD BILL" KARLSSON

Forward William Karlsson (43-35—78) scored his first goal of the season in overtime against St. Louis (Oct. 21) and finished third in the NHL in goals with 43. His highlight-reel goal against the San Jose Sharks tied him with Brian Bradley (TBL, 1992-93) for the most goals scored by a player on an expansion team in their inaugural season (excluding mergers) and he passed Bradley with a goal at Vancouver. Only five players scored more goals while playing on a team in its inaugural season. The Marsta, Sweden, native led the NHL in plus/minus with a plus-49 rating and finished tied for eighth with 78 takeaways.

Defenseman Brayden McNabb's work on the blue line turned heads during the season. The Davidson, Saskatchewan, native led the Golden Knights with 225 hits and 176 blocked shots during the 2017-18 season. He was the only player in the NHL to record at least 170 in each category this season. McNabb tallied a career-high 11 hits against the New Jersey Devils (March 4), which was tied for the third most hits in a game this season. He has recorded career-highs in hits (225), blocked shots (176), takeaways (30) and goals (5).

SPREADING THE WEALTH

The Golden Knights had four players finish with at least 60 points this season: forward William Karlsson finished tied for 23rd in the NHL with 78 points (43 G, 35 A), forward Jonathan Marchessault tied for 29th with 75 points (27 G, 48 A), forward David Perron was tied for 44th with 66 points (16 G, 50 A) and forward Reilly Smith was tied for 72nd with 60 points (22 G, 38 A). As a team, Vegas finished fifth in both goals-per-game with 3.27 and in total goals scored with 268.

POSITIVE VIBES

Multiple Vegas Golden Knights forwards sat atop the Plus/Minus standings at the end of the regular season. William Karlsson (+49) led the league and Jonathan Marchessault (+36) finished second.

Reilly Smith (+31) finished tied for seventh while Brayden McNabb (+26) was tied for 13th and ranked tied for fifth amongst defensemen.

THE REAL DEAL

Forward James Neal posted 25 goals in 2017-18 season, which marks the 10th consecutive season in which he has scored at least 20 goals in a season. He's one of only five active players to score at least 20 goals in his first 10 seasons joining Alex Ovechkin, Patrick Kane, Jonathan Towes and Thomas Vanek. He scored the first two goals in Golden Knights history against Dallas and the overtime winner against Arizona, becoming the first player in NHL history to score the first two game-winning goals in a franchise's inaugural season. He added two more goals in the Golden Knights 5-2 win over Arizona and became the second player from any NHL team to score a GWG in each of his club's first three games in any regular-season. He finished the season with 44 points (25 G, 19 A), which is the seventh time in his career he has had at least 40 points.

THE SUNSHINE KID

Vegas Golden Knights forward Ryan Carpenter (born in Oviedo, FL) finished the 2017-18 season on a tear, scoring a career-high nine goals from February 4 to the end of the year. He became just the second player born in the state of Florida to score at least nine goals in a season, joining Shayne Gostisbehere who scored 17 in 2015-16 and finished with 13 this season. Carpenter finished the season with 15 points (9G, 6A).

SMITH EARNS NHL HONOR FOR FEBRUARY

Vegas forward Reilly Smith was named the NHL's Third Star for the month of February. He ranked fourth in the NHL with 20 points (8G, 12A) in 14 games as the Golden Knights went 8-5-1 in February. He picked up at least one point in 12 of his 14 appearances, including a seven-game run Feb. 4-17. Smith also posted six multi-point outings, highlighted by three-point performances Feb. 17 vs. MTL (2G, 1A) and Feb. 23 vs. VAN (0G, 3A).

MULTIPLE MASKS IN NET

The Vegas Golden Knights had four goaltenders record a victory this season. During the 2016-17 seasons in the NHL, two teams had wins from four goalies (Winnipeg and Los Angeles). The following expansion teams got wins from four different goalies during their inaugural season: 1979-80 Oilers (5), 1979-80 Jets, 1991-92 Sharks and 1999-2000 Thrashers. Vegas also became the 12th team in NHL history – and first since the Islanders in 2010-11 – to have at least three different goaltenders record their first career win in the same season.

The Golden Knights become the first club in NHL history to win eight of its first nine games in its inaugural NHL season and the team collects its fifth straight victory, which matched the longest winning streak by a team at any point in its first season, joining the 1926-27 Rangers and 1979-80 Oilers.

Nov. 22, 2017 - Vegas matches the NHL record for most wins by a team through the first 20 games of its inaugural season with its win over Anaheim, joining the Montreal Canadiens (1917-18) with 13 victories.

Nov. 24, 2017 - The Vegas Golden Knights defeat the San Jose Sharks 5-4 in overtime, giving Vegas its eighth consecutive victory at T-Mobile Arena, becoming the second team in NHL history to go 8-0-0 at home during any point in their inaugural season, joining the Toronto Arenas (1917-18).

Nov. 25, 2017 - The Vegas Golden Knights defeat the Arizona Coyotes and record their second five-game winning streak during the 2017-18 season. The win also gives the Golden Knights their 15th victory on the year and the team established an NHL record for fewest games to earn 15 wins by a team in its inaugural season (22 GP), besting the mark of 25 games set by the New York Rangers (1926-27).

Dec. 3, 2017 - The Vegas Golden Knights capture their 10th victory at T-Mobile Arena with 3-2 overtime win against the Arizona Coyotes, becoming the first franchise in NHL history to win 10 of its first 12 home games in its inaugural season.

Dec. 14, 2017 - The Vegas Golden Knights capture their 20th win with a 2-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Penguins, establishing an NHL record for fewest games (31) to reach the 20-win mark by a club in its inaugural season

Dec. 27, 2017 - The Vegas Golden Knights extend their point streak to 10 games (9-0-1), including five consecutive wins, after defeating the Anaheim Ducks, establishing an NHL record for the longest point streak by a team in its inaugural season, eclipsing the mark of nine games set by the Panthers in 1993-94 (5-0-4). Also with the win, the Golden Knights establish an NHL record for fewest games (35 GP) to reach 50 points by a team in its inaugural season, besting the mark of 40 contests set by the Rangers in 1926-27 (22-12-6, 50 points).

Dec. 28, 2017 - The Vegas Golden Knight set an NHL record for fewest games (36 GP) to reach 25 wins by a team in its inaugural season after defeating the Los Angeles Kings 3-2 in overtime, establishes the longest win streak by an NHL team (six) in its inaugural season and extends their point streak to 11 games (10-0-1)

The 11 wins by Vegas are the most wins in a calendar month by a team in its inaugural season, besting the New York Rangers, who were 8-1-2 (18 points) in January 1927, the Hartford Whalers, who were 8-5-1 (17 points) in December 1979, and the Golden Knights previous record for wins in a month when Vegas was 8-3-0 (16 points) in October of this year.

Jan. 2, 2018 - The Golden Knights shut out the Nashville Predators 3-0 and extend their winning streak to eight games. Vegas becomes second team in the NHL to have an eight-game winning streak during the 2017-18 year, joining the LA Kings, and becomes the first major North American professional sports franchise to win eight straight games at any point in its inaugural campaign since the NBA's Denver Nuggets in 1976.

VEGAS TIMELINE

Jan. 7, 2018 - The Golden Knights capture a 2-1 win over the New York Rangers and finish the first half of the season with a 29-10-2.

Jan. 14, 2018 - 10,000 fans attend the Vegas Golden Knights first-ever "Fan Fest" on Fremont Street in Downtown Las Vegas where players signed autographs and took pictures with fans before being introduced on the 3rd Street Stage. The event was originally scheduled in October but after the mass shooting that occurred on October 1, it was rescheduled to January.

Jan. 27, 2018 - Goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury stops 14 consecutive shots to win the save streak competition during the NHL All-Star skills competition.

Jan. 28, 2018 - Vegas Golden Knights Head Coach Gerard Gallant, forward James Neal and goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury help lead the Pacific Division to victory in the NHL All-Star game.

Feb. 1, 2018 - The Vegas Golden Knights capture their 34th win of the season with a 3-2 overtime victory over the Winnipeg Jets, establishing an NHL record for most wins by a team in its inaugural season.

Feb. 21, 2018 - The Golden Knights establish an NHL record for most points by a team in its inaugural season after capturing their 84th point with a victory over the Calgary Flames. The team also improves to 23-5-2 at T-Mobile Arena and pass the 1979-80 Hartford Whalers for the most home wins by a team in its inaugural season.

March 10, 2018 - With a 2-1 shootout victory over the Buffalo Sabres, the Golden Knights improve to 20-12-3 on the road and set the record for most road wins by a team in its inaugural season in league history, passing the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim (1993-94).

March 12, 2018 - Vegas Golden Knight's goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury becomes the 13th goalie in NHL history to capture 400th career victory as Vegas defeats the Philadelphia Flyers, 3-2.

March 18, 2018 - Vegas Golden Knight's goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury captures 401st career victory and 48th career shutout while forward William Karlsson records his second career hat trick and becomes the 11th player in the NHL's expansion era (since 1967-68) to record multiple hat tricks while playing for a team in its inaugural season, and just the eighth with a natural hat trick, as Vegas defeats the Calgary Flames, 4-0.

March 22, 2018 - Vegas became the first team in NHL history to reach the 100-point mark in its inaugural season. The previous benchmark was three seasons, set by the Oilers in 1981-82 and four campaigns for a team that did not merge from the WHA (a mark set by the Islanders in 1975-76).

March 26, 2018 - The Vegas Golden Knights defeated the Colorado Avalanche to become the third expansion team since 1968-69 – and first to start from scratch – to clinch a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In 1979-80, the Hartford Whalers and Edmonton Oilers each reached the postseason after joining the NHL from the World Hockey Association. In addition to the Golden Knights, Oilers and Whalers, only four other expansion clubs from any of the four North American professional sports leagues qualified for the playoffs. The four other expansion clubs to reach the playoffs – all from the NBA – are the 1966-67 Chicago Bulls, 1976-77 Denver Nuggets, 1976-77 San Antonio Spurs and 2002-03 New Orleans Hornets. The Nuggets and Spurs joined from the defunct American Basketball Association, while the newly-formed Bulls were part of an eight-team playoff bracket in a 10-team league. The Hornets, meanwhile, relocated from Charlotte but are considered an expansion franchise by the NBA.

March 31, 2018 - Vegas defeats San Jose and becomes the first modern-era expansion team from any of the four North American professional sports leagues to start from scratch and finish first in its division (excluding mergers and all-expansion divisions).

April 7, 2018 - The Golden Knights finish their inaugural regular season with a record of 51-24-7 and 109 points.

April 11, 2018 - The Golden Knights capture their first playoff victory with a 1-0 win over the Los Angeles Kings.

VEGAS TIMELINE

April 17, 2018 - The Golden Knights became just the third team from the NHL, NBA and MLB to complete a four-game sweep to win their first-ever playoff series – and the first to do so in their inaugural season. Only three other NHL teams won a playoff series in their inaugural season, all against other clubs also in their debut campaign (Toronto Arenas in 1918; St. Louis Blues and Minnesota North Stars in 1968).

May 6, 2018 - The Golden Knights capture their second series after defeating the San Jose Sharks in six games. Vegas became just the third franchise in NHL history to win multiple series in its inaugural season. The first postseason in League history saw the Toronto Arenas win the 1918 NHL Final, a two-game total-goals series, by a 10-7 margin against the Montreal Canadiens before defeating the Pacific Coast Hockey Association's Vancouver Millionaires to win the Stanley Cup. In 1968, the St. Louis Blues defeated the Philadelphia Flyers and Minnesota North Stars to emerge from the all-expansion West Division and advance to the Stanley Cup Final.

May 20, 2018 - The Golden Knights defeated the Winnipeg Jets in five games and became the seventh team in NHL history to reach the Stanley Cup Final after recording three series-clinching wins on the road.

May 28, 2018 - Down 4-3 early in the third period, the Golden Knights scored three unanswered goals – including the winning and insurance tallies by Tomas Nosek – to defeat the Capitals in Game 1 of the Stanley Cup Final.

June 7, 2018 - The Golden Knights drop their first postseason series, falling to the Washington Capitals in Game 5 of the 2018 Stanley Cup Final.

LOS ANGELES KINGS

ROUND 1 - LOS ANGELES KINGS

Game 1 (April 11)

Vegas Golden Knights 1, Los Angeles Kings 0

The Vegas Golden Knights were victorious in their first-ever playoff game, defeating the Los Angeles Kings 1-0. Shea Theodore scored the only goal of the game 3:23 minutes into the game. Marc-Andre Fleury stopped all 30 shots, capturing his 63rd career playoff win. His 63 career playoff wins are the most among active goaltenders and his 11 playoff shutouts rank 11th all-time. With the win, Vegas joined the Rangers (1927), Blues (1968) and Kings (1968) as the only teams to post a playoff shutout in their inaugural NHL season.

Game 2 (April 13)

Vegas Golden Knights 2, Los Angeles Kings 1 (2 OT)

The Vegas Golden Knights held serve on home ice, defeating the Los Angeles Kings 2-1 in double overtime and took a 2-0 lead in the series. Alex Tuch opened the scoring for Vegas 14:47 into the game but the Kings were able to tie the game in the second period. After a scoreless third period, the Golden Knights collected another franchise first: playing in overtime during the playoffs. It took a full 20 minutes and another 15:23 before Erik Haula was able to bury the game-winner. Marc-Andre Fleury stopped 29 shots and collected his 64th playoff victory. The Golden Knights became the third team in NHL history to win a playoff game requiring multiple overtimes in its inaugural season.

ROUND 1 - LOS ANGELES KINGS

Vegas Golden Knights 3, Los Angeles Kings 2

The Vegas Golden Knights took a 3-0 series lead over the Los Angeles Kings with a 3-2 win in L.A. The Kings took their first lead in the series after posting the first goal in the game. After a scoreless second period, the Golden Knights tied the game after Cody Eakin found the back of the net. James Neal gave Vegas the lead later in the period and William Karlsson extended the lead to two goals 21 seconds after Neal's goal. Los Angeles netted a late goal, but the Golden Knights fought off the final rush. Marc-Andre Fleury stopped 37 shots en route to his 65th career playoff victory, which ties him for 11th all-time with Dominik Hasek.

Vegas Golden Knights 1, Los Angeles Kings 0

The Vegas Golden Knights finished the sweep of the Los Angeles Kings with a 1-0 victory. Former King and current Golden Knights defenseman Brayden McNabb scored the only goal of the game in the second period. Marc-Andre Fleury stopped 31 shots en route to his 66th career playoff victory, passing Dominik Hasek for 11th all-time. It was his second shutout of the series and the 12th of his career, which ties him for the 10th most all-time. With the win, the Golden Knights became just the third team from the NHL, NBA and MLB to complete a four-game sweep to win their first-ever playoff series – and the first to do so in their inaugural season.

SAN JOSE SHARKS

ROUND 2 - SAN JOSE SHARKS

Game 1 (April 26)

Vegas Golden Knights 7, San Jose Sharks 0

The Vegas Golden Knights opened Round 2 of the Stanley Cup Playoffs with a 7-0 win over the San Jose Sharks. Vegas opened the game with four consecutive goals courtesy of Cody Eakin, Erik Haula, Jonathan Marchessault and Alex Tuch. Shea Theodore scored the fifth goal of the game in the second period before Colin Miller and James Neal each scored in the final stanza. Marc-Andre Fleury stopped 33 shots en route to his third shutout of the playoffs, the 13th of his career, and he captured his 67th career playoff victory. The Golden Knights became the third NHL franchise to score at least seven goals in a playoff game during its inaugural season. The Toronto Arenas did so during the first postseason in League history while the North Stars had two such outings against the Kings, another expansion club.

Game 2 (April 26)

San Jose Sharks 4, Vegas Golden Knights 3 (2 OT)

The Vegas Golden Knights dropped their first game of the 2018 Stanley Cup Playoffs, falling in the second game of Round 2 to the San Jose Sharks, 4-3, in double overtime. The Golden Knights jumped out to a 2-0 lead after William Karlsson scored in the first and second period. The Sharks answered with three straight second period goals and owned a 3-2 lead heading in the third stanza. Nate Schmidt tied the game and forced overtime late in the third period. The Golden Knights looked to have won the game but a goaltender interference challenge negated a Jonathan Marchessault goal in the first overtime session. San Jose evened the series after scoring just over five minutes into the second overtime.

ROUND 2 - SAN JOSE SHARKS

Game 3 (April 30)

Vegas Golden Knights 4, San Jose Sharks 3 (OT)

The Vegas Golden Knights captured a 2-1 series lead over the San Jose Sharks following a 4-3 overtime victory in Game 3. The Sharks struck first in the second period but the Golden Knights followed that with three straight second period goals, courtesy of Colin Miller, Jonathan Marchessault and Reilly Smith. San Jose scored twice in the third to force OT but Vegas' William Karlsson ended the game just over eight minutes into the extra session. Marc-Andre Fleury earned his 68th career postseason win, moving him into a tie for 10th all-time, after stopping 39 shots.

Game 4 (May 2)

San Jose Sharks 4, Vegas Golden Knights 0

The Vegas Golden Knights fell in Game 4 their second round series against the San Jose Sharks, 4-0. The Sharks jumped out to a 2-0 lead after the first period and tallied a goal in the second and third stanzas to even up the series at two games a piece. Marc-Andre Fleury was saddled with his second loss of the postseason after allowing four goals on 34 shots.

ROUND 2 - SAN JOSE SHARKS

Game 5 (May 4)

Vegas Golden Knights 5, San Jose Sharks 3

The Vegas Golden Knights took a 3-2 series lead over the San Jose Sharks, defeating them 5-3 in Game 5 of their second round series. James Neal opened the scoring for Vegas, finding the back of the net with three seconds left in the first period. Alex Tuch and Eric Haula added goals in the second stanza before Tuch scored his second goal of the game in the third, giving the Golden Knights a 4-0 lead. The Sharks then scored three goals in 6:09 span but Vegas clinched the victory with an empty net goal courtesy of Jonathan Marchessault. Golden Knights goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury made 27 saves en route to his 69th career playoff victory, which moves him in to sole possession of 10th all-time.

Game 6 (May 6)

Vegas Golden Knights 3, San Jose Sharks 0

The Vegas Golden Knights clinched its series over the San Jose Sharks with a 3-0 shutout. Following a scoreless first period, both Jonathan Marchessault and Nate Schmidt found the back of the net in the second period and Cody Eakin scored an empty net goal in the third period to clinch the series. Golden Knights goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury made 28 saves and became only the 10th goaltender ever to record 70 career playoff victories. It was also Fleury's fourth shutout in a series-clinching situation, which is tied the second most in NHL history.

CITY NATIONAL ARENA

By Gary Lawless, Vegas Golden Knights Insider

The Vegas Golden Knights needed a place to train and operate as a business. Vegas simply needed more ice surfaces. City National Arena stepped in to become the perfect solution for all.

Sometimes you hear the expression, "that's his or her baby," in reference to a project and its manager. City National Arena may be home to the entire Golden Knights organization but it will be Murray Craven's baby for some time to come.

Craven was both the visionary and project manager for City National Arena. He thought it and he built it. And the Golden Knights came.

"We needed this for two reasons. First and foremost a home for our NHL team. Both the hockey team and the business team," said Craven," Golden Knights Senior Vice President. "Secondly, to grow the game of hockey in the city of Las Vegas both at a youth and adult level. Prior to this there were only two rinks in Las Vegas and they're always booked. That's the main reason hockey hasn't grown at a pace to match a city of over two million people. This gives the game of hockey some more space to grow in Las Vegas."

Two ice pads, state-of-the-art training facilities, office space for 100, 58 TVs, a full-service restaurant, one hot tub, one cold tub, a running track, a weight room overlooking the Las Vegas Valley, conference rooms, an omelet bar, medical areas, equipment storage, 600 pairs of rental skates, a pro shop and on and on.

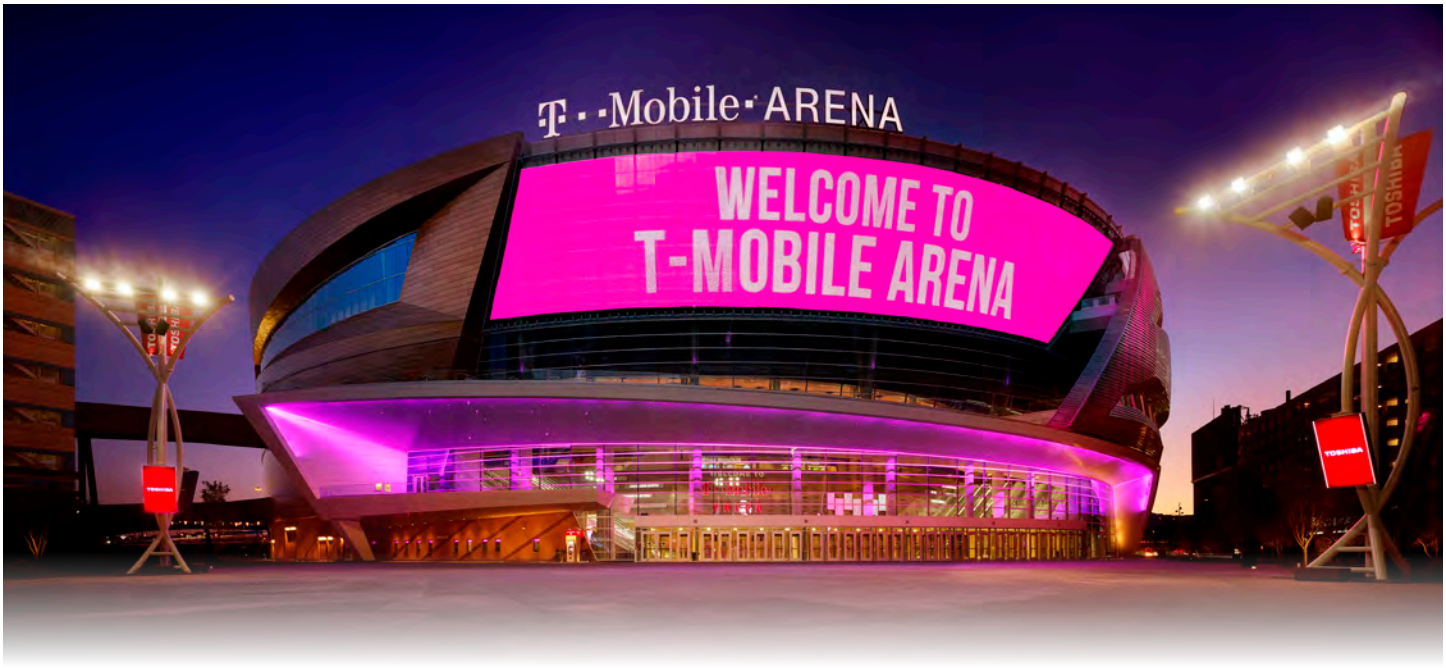
"It's new. Which is always great. And it has everything a player could possibly want," said Craven. "Spaces for the guys to lounge, to eat, to learn, to dress, to train. Spaces for the coaches to learn and teach. It has technology and it has ice. It's a space which we believe will attract players. They'll want to come here in the morning and stay late. That's always a good thing for a hockey team."

Craven travelled around the NHL to collect ideas and then brainstormed with designers, architects, contractors as well as medical and equipment staff to fine-tune his vision.

Ten months and $30 million later and City National Arena was finished in time for the inaugural Golden Knights training camp.

"It's been a labor of love but it's been a lot of work. I'm glad it's done and I hope the players and staff enjoy it," said Craven. "Supporting and helping to grow hockey at a grassroots level in Vegas is a big part of our mission here with the Golden Knights and this facility will go a long way in allowing us to make that happen. Hopefully it's also a catalyst to a lot of wins on the ice for us as well."

T-MOBILE ARENA



One of the newest additions to the Las Vegas Strip is T-Mobile Arena, the home of the Vegas Golden Knights. The 650,000-square-foot entertainment and sports venue sits on 16 acres between New York-New New York Hotel & Casino and Monte Carlo Resort and Casino.

Construction for T-Mobile Arena started on May 1, 2014 and less than two years later the arena hosted its grand opening on April 6, 2016 with a blowout concert headlined by local legends including The Killers, "Mr. Las Vegas" Wayne Newton, and emerging pop artist Shamir.

SEATING CAPACITIES

End Stage Concerts	12,000 – 18,000
Center Stage Concert	19,500 – 20,000

To capture the excitement of The Strip, T-Mobile Arena's design includes an expansive glass façade with an LED overlay, sweeping, dramatic balconies on every level, an outdoor performance stage and a sleek exterior that is as bold as it is sophisticated. The design creates a visually captivating and iconic focal point in Las Vegas' bustling entertainment market.

As guests enter T-Mobile Arena, they walk through Toshiba Plaza, an open-air public venue that connects The Strip, The Park and T-Mobile Arena. This two-acre flexible event space has the ability to host outdoor basketball and volleyball events, public concerts, media events and a variety of other activations including fan festivities prior to Golden Knights games.

Inside the arena, guests can experience unrivaled premium seating options featuring Event Level Suites, Luxury Suites, Opera Boxes and Terrace Tables, as well as Club and Event Level seating programs. There are eight Event Level "Bunker" suites, 44 Luxury Suites and two Party Suites inside T-Mobile Arena. There also are six premium VIP clubs, including two Tower Clubs cantilevered over the upper bowl offering unique views. Guests sitting in these locations will enjoy dedicated VIP entrances and VIP parking adjacent to the arena.

In addition to being home to the Vegas Golden Knights, the venue hosts more than 100 events annually.
